c) If the Reviewer is unwilling or unable to act, the Committee shall appoint a substitute to hold office until the termination of the next AGM.

5. The Management Committee ("the Committee")

5.1 The Committee shall consist of the Officers, ex officio, and not less than five nor more than the number which is one less than the total number of Officers, being full or Family Members of the Club, elected at the AGM each year to hold office until termination of the next AGM. All Committee Members shall be eligible for re-election.

5.2 Candidates for election to the Committee shall be those of the retiring Committee (not being Officers of the Club) offering themselves for re-election and such other Full or Family Members whose nominations (duly proposed and seconded by Full or Family Members) with their consent, shall have been received by the Honorary Secretary at least fourteen days before the AGM. In the event of a tie for a single vacancy the Chairman of the meeting may elect to cast his vote or determine by lot.

5.3 Powers of the Committee. The Committee shall manage the affairs of the Club according to the Rules and shall cause the Club funds to be applied solely to the objects of the Club or for a benevolent or charitable purpose nominated by General Meeting.

5.3.1 The Committee may appoint such sub-committees as it may deem necessary and may delegate such of its powers as it may think fit upon such terms and conditions as shall be deemed expedient and/or as required by law. Subcommittees shall consist of such Members of the Committee or of the Club as the Committee deems fit. Officers of the Club shall be ex officio members of all subcommittees.

5.3.2 The Committee may co-opt any Full or Family Member to the Committee provided that the total number shall not exceed the maximum as set out at clause 5.1 above.

5.3.3 The Committee or any person or sub-committee delegated by the Committee to act as an agent of the Club or its Members, shall enter into contracts only so far as authorised expressly or impliedly by the Members. No one shall without the express authority of the Members in General Meeting pledge the credit of the Club's Membership.

5.3.4 In pursuance of the authority vested in the Committee by Members of the Club, Committee Members are entitled to be indemnified by the Members of the Club against any liabilities properly incurred by them or any of them on behalf of the Club wherever the contract is of a duly authorised nature or could be so assumed and entered into on behalf of the Club. The limit of any individual Member's indemnity in this respect shall be a sum equal to one year's subscription at the then current rate for that category of membership unless the Committee has been authorised to exceed such limit by a General Meeting of the Club.

5.3.5 The Committee shall make such byelaws and regulations as it shall from time to time think fit and shall cause the same to be brought to the notice of the Members at least fourteen days before the date of their implementation. Such byelaws and regulations shall remain in force until approved or set aside by vote at a General Meeting of the Club.

5.3.6 A Committee member, sub-committee member or any Officer of the Club shall in transacting the business of the Club disclose to third parties that he acts in that capacity.

5.3.7 The Committee shall meet at least once every three months, making such arrangements as to the conduct, place of assembly and holding of such meetings as it wishes. The Commodore or in his absence, a Chairman elected by those present, shall preside.

5.3.8 Five Committee Members personally present shall form a quorum at the meeting of the Committee.

5.3.9 The Committee may nominate such honorary members as it may think fit. The election of such members shall be put to the vote at the AGM and such honorary members shall be duly elected if two thirds of those present vote in favour of the election.

5.4 In particular the Committee shall ensure that the property and funds of the club will not be used for the direct or indirect private benefit of members other than as reasonably allowed by the rules and that all surplus income or profits are re-invested in the Club.

6. Trustees of the Club

6.1 There shall be at least three and not more than four Trustees of the Club, who shall be appointed from time to time as necessary by the Committee from among Full, Family and Honorary Members of the Club who are willing to be appointed. Trustees shall hold office during their lifetime or until they resign by notice in writing to the Committee or until a resolution removing them from office is passed at a meeting of the Committee by a majority of Members present and entitled to vote.

6.2 Powers of the Trustees

The Trustees shall in all respects act in regard to any property of the Club held by them, in accordance with the directions of the Committee, and shall have power to sell, lease, mortgage or pledge any Club property so held for the purpose of borrowing money for the benefit of the Club in compliance with the Committee's directions, (which shall be recorded in the minutes of the proceedings of the Committee) but no purchaser, lessee or mortgagee shall be concerned to enquire whether any such direction has been given.

6.3 Property of the Club

All property of the Club, including land and investments, shall be held by the Trustees for the time being, in their names so far as necessary and practicable on trust for the use and benefit of the Club. On the death, resignation or removal from office of a Trustee, the Committee shall nominate a new Trustee in his place and shall as soon as possible thereafter take all lawful and practicable steps to procure the vesting of all Club property into the names of the Trustees as constituted after such nomination. For the purpose of giving effect to any such nomination, the Honorary Secretary for the time being is hereby nominated as the person to appoint new Trustees of the Club (within the meaning of section 36 of the Trustee Act 1925 or as may be amended) and shall by deed duly appoint the person or persons nominated by the Committee.

6.4 Indemnity or Trustees from Club Funds the Trustees shall be-effectually indemnified by the Committee out of the assets of the Club from and against any liability, costs, expenses and payments whatsoever which may be properly incurred or made by them in the exercise of their duties or in relation to any property of the Club vested in them, or in relation to any proceedings, or which otherwise relate directly or indirectly to the performance of the functions of a Trustee of the Club.

7. Meetings of the Club
